

HOLY INNOCENTS FALLOWFIELD

Contemplation – Action – Learning – Living

AUGUST 2019

August is a quieter month, when our numbers thin and the summer sun we hope encourages us to slow down.

At a recent Parochial Church Council meeting we agreed to improve our communication with church members, letting you know what we have been discussing and what we have agreed on your behalf. We will do this in various ways, including this monthly leaflet. So to start this process, you will see inside the vision statement written by PCC members, reflecting thoughts from the PCC and also from those of you who contributed by writing ideas on large sheets of paper at the back of church. Thank you to Mohammad Reza and Kaveh for rendering it into Farsi.

The vision statement is our attempt to capture what we are at our best, what we aspire to be, what we would like to communicate to people who might come and join us – just once or more regularly.

The next stage in our PCC discussion is to review the different areas of our church life, in the hope we can give fuller expression to this vision and build on our strengths. We have started this process with communication. This will include a refresh of our website and social media: if you have any ideas on this or would like to get involved, please speak to Richard or Lynda.
