

HOLY INNOCENTS FALLOWFIELD

JULY 2019

Keep innocency and do what is right

Contemplation – Action – Learning – Living

July is an “ordinary” month in the church calendar. After the highs of Jesus’ Ascension and the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, our attention comes back down into daily life as we follow Luke’s gospel through chapters 10 and 11, reflecting on our engagement with the world in witness, in service and in prayer.

It’s also perhaps a chance to connect with our lovely church primary school. St James has its school fete on Saturday, 6th July and Jo is running a stall, so please, if you can, support her and the fete.

On 16th July we welcome the students of St James School to church at 09:30am for their end-of-year Eucharist, which is always a moving occasion. We will bid a group of year 6 students farewell as they leave the sheltered waters of St James and head out into secondary school. Please come and join us if you can.
