First Hymn: 200

FIRST READING 1 Kings 19.9-18

PSALM 85.8-13

Dona nobis pacem, Domine. (repeated by all)

I will hear what the Lord God has to say, a voice that speaks of peace, peace for his people and his friends.
His help is near for those who fear him and his glory will dwell in our land.

Mercy and faithfulness have met; justice and peace have embraced.
Faithfulness shall spring from the earth and justice look down from heaven.

The Lord will make us prosper and our earth shall yield its fruit.
Justice shall march before him and peace shall follow his steps.

SECOND READING: Romans 10.5-15

Moses writes concerning the righteousness that comes from the law, that "the person who does these things will live by them." But the righteousness that comes from faith says, "Do not say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?'" (that is, to bring Christ down) "or 'Who will descend into the abyss?'" (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). But what does it say? "The word is near you, on your lips and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved. The scripture says, "No one who believes in him will be put to shame."
For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him. For, "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved." But how are they to call on one in whom they have not believed?
And how are they to believe in one of whom they have never heard?
And how are they to hear without someone to proclaim him?
And how are they to proclaim him unless they are sent?
As it is written,
"How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!"

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION VERSE:
Jesus Christ is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him.
For, everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.

There is a longing in our hearts, O Lord, for you to reveal yourself to us.
There is a longing in our hearts for love we only find in you, our God.

For justice, for freedom, for mercy, hear our prayer.
In sorrow, in grief, be near, hear our prayer, O God.

For wisdom, for courage, for comfort, hear our prayer.
In weakness, in fear, be near, hear our prayer, O God.

For healing, for wholeness, for new life, hear our prayer.
In sickness, in death, be near, hear our prayer, O God.

Lord save us, take pity, light in our darkness.
We call you, we wait, be near, hear our prayer, O God.
