PSALM 111

Response
v. 10a

The fear of the Lord, the fear of the Lord is the be - gin - ning of wis - dom.

Verse

Alleluia. I will give thanks to the Lord with my whole heart, in the company of the faithful and in the congregation.

The works of the Lord are great, sought out by all who delight in them.

He gave food to those who feared him; he is ever mindful of his covenant.

He showed his people the power of his works in giving them the heritage of the nations.

The works of his hands are truth and justice; all his commandments are sure.

They stand fast for ever and ever; they are done in truth and equity.

He sent redemption to his people; holy and awesome is his name.

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom;

A good understanding have those who live by it; his praise endures for ever.

SECOND READING: 2 Timothy 2: 5-8

Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David—that is my gospel, for which I suffer hardship, even to the point of being chained like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained. So, I endure everything for the sake of the elect, so that they may also obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory.

The saying is sure: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he will also deny us - if we are faithless, he remains faithful— for he cannot deny himself. Remind them of this and warn them before God that they are to avoid wrangling over words, which does no good but only ruins those who are listening. Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved by him, a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly explaining the word of truth.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia.....The God who made us is faithful, and keeps his promises for ever.

Alleluia...

GOSPEL READING: Luke 17:11-19

Sing of the Lord's goodness, Father of all wisdom, come to him and bless his name.

mercy he has shown us, his love is for ever, faithful to the end of days.

Come then all you nations, sing of your Lord's goodness, melodies of praise and thanks to God.

Ring out the Lord's glory, praise him with your music, worship him and bless his name.

Power he has wielded, honour is his garment, risen from the snares of death.

His word he has spoken, one bread he has broken, new life he now gives to all.

Courage in our darkness, comfort in our sorrow, Spirit of our God most high;
solace for the weary, pardon for the sinner, splendour of the living God.

Praise him with your singing, praise him with the trumpet, praise God with the lute and harp;

praise him with the cymbals, praise him with your dancing, praise God till the end of days.
